

Because If You Love Me © R Salagan

We touch We feel
Everybody knows that love is real
We hold Our hand
Everyone around will understand
We share Our tears
Tried to make it last for a thousand years
And will always understand right now
To stay To leave
Why is that so hard to believe?
To run To hide
Sometime love will take a ride
To make Our mend
Never ever really trying to pretend
As we always understand
I love you because if you love me
Tonight Your heart
Belongs to the one you'll never part
I make My stand
Come with me and take me by the hand
We shared our fears
Always knowing that we had our golden years
As we always understand
I love you because if you love me
Lead.....
And now two hearts
Making very sure that they will never part as they always understand
I love you because if you love meeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee.
