

Ellipse Of Love © R Salagan

You may not as I will,
Should I say in few words,
But to find that I do,
What I'm thinking of you.

For no reason be known,
Must you, may, that I could,
See as far as I do,
Simple likeness of you.

If you may not look,
Then you could not see,
in as few words will I,
Make you partly of me.

Lead.....

Come one all two of self,
Self with I one thought knew,
How could we ever be,
of a number of three.

Circle on you and I,
Turning round knowing why,
that we just could not see,
Being you-you-me.

Lead.....

So may you as I do,
Cause we thought I would knot,
Finding words of kind ill,
to be fancy of three.

If you were not me,
Could you have not been,
to a center of two be one part of us three

Ellipse Of Love credits: words and music by Robert Salagan all instruments and vocals by Robert Salagan. Published by Les Éditions Do-Sol enr.

3309 rue Flavie, Fabreville, Québec, Canada, H7P 1R4
Tel: 450-625-4764 courriel: rsalagan@videotron.ca
WWW.ROBERTSALAGAN.COM