

Les Éditions Do-Sol Publishing

One Way Love © S Desmarais-A DeSouza

People say it's easy to love, who are they to say
Only you know how he feels, you don't feel the same way
Try to see things in his light, then things get in the way
Your views changed and there he stands, still hoping that someday, that your

One Way Love might turn around, you'll learn to love him too
This One Way Love he has for you, could be one for both of you

Will it ever happen to me, that I can love again?
The one I was so honest with, is now my closest friend
It happened all so suddenly, but was ruined by what he said
Now he's back waiting for me, time will only tell, if his

One way Love might turn around and I'll learn to love him too
This One Way Love he has for me, could be one for both of us too

Lead...

If his One Way Love might turn around, and I'll learn to love him too
His One Way Love he has for me, could be one for both of us too
This One Way Love he has for me, could be one for both of us too

One Way Love credits: words by Sharron Desmarais music by Alan DeSouza all instruments by Robert Salagan and Alan DeSouza vocals by Sharron Desmarais and Robert Salagan. Recording made in 1979. Published by Les Éditions Do-Sol enr.

3309 rue Flavie, Fabreville, Québec, Canada, H7P 1R4
Tel: 450-625-4764 courriel: rsalagan@videotron.ca
WWW.ROBERTSALAGAN.COM