Someone Is Walking With You © R Salagan

I can only imagine, someone said it's not true
I believe it's just happened babe and you know its true
Someone is walking with you

I can only imagine, some will say it's not true
There is really no heaven babe but you know its true
Cause someone's walking with you...ah ah yea ah oh

Ah....you know it could be better
But better doesn't give you it all
Yeah ...for something to get better
Nothing ever matters till someone says it matters to you

Want to tell you about it, there's this thing on my mind
Every time we're together babe well you know its true
Someone is walking with me

Bridge:

Ah for heavens' sake don't go out and fall
For someone who will make you feel small
Cause nothing does it better for you and me and me and you

Lead.....

Ah....you know it could be better
But better doesn't give you it all
Yeah ...for something to get better
Nothing ever matters till someone says it matters to you

Could we ever imagine, never said it's not true
We believe it's just happened babe and we know its true
Cause someone's walking with you and me and me and you, I say
And you and me and you and you and me and you (someone).....
