

Les Éditions Do-Sol Publishing

Come Forth © J Clement-R Salagan

Come forth and identify yourself
For as you see I've not been myself
Come forth in reaching my mind
Like the poet I've been blind

Don't be frighten of the vision you see
Just imagine this person is me
And by looking at the walls been scored
Makes the preacher I've been ignored

Come forth and forget about the past
And the present that will never ever last
Come forth and reflect the days to come
Like the bandit I've been a scum

Hear the cries still moisten by the tears
Left uncouncted throughout the years
Feel the suffering and forget your endured pain
Like the dogs I've slept out in the rain

Lead.....

Hear the cries still moisten by the tears
Left uncouncted throughout the years
Feel the suffering and forget your endured pain
Like the dogs I've slept out in the rain
Like the dogs I've slept out in the rain

Come Forth credits: words by Jean Clément and music by Robert Salagan all instruments and vocals by Robert Salagan. This song is featured in a show given in Buckingham, QC Chanel 5 on August 26th 1978. Published by Les Éditions Do-Sol enr.

3309 rue Flavie, Fabreville, Québec, Canada, H7P 1R4
Tel: 450-625-4764 courriel: rsalagan@videotron.ca
WWW.ROBERTSALAGAN.COM