From These Chairs © D Morley-R Salagan

From these chairs you have spoken to a good friend late one night
Bout the way your heart's broken and no longer plays the part

You are not so cold hearted as to never love again
From these chairs you have spoken to your good friend late one night

When your whole world's begotten and that all things come apart
You fall down to the bottom and go right back to the start

With these words you have spoken from the one place in your heart
Where your love's not forgotten and can now come play its part

Lead.....

Bridge:

Imagine you have forgotten how to really love again
Until you heard the love words a spoken from your friend

With these words we have spoken about the love between two friends
And the way their heart's broken and no longer can pretend

We are not so cold hearted as to never love again
And the two hearts a broken now have learnt to love again
Now the two hearts a broken they have learnt to love Againnnnnnnnnnn
